About

We believe beauty is what you make, not where you find it

Fashion Stories was founded in 2007 as an international, fashion jewelry line. Our heritage has been diverse from the beginning. We take inspiration from Europe and collaborate with designers in Hong Kong. We believe in combining the best of old and new styles and materials to create something truly fresh.

Fashion Stories is based in Moscow and now has arrived in New York. We invite you to join us on this journey.
